Summer Summit Preview

By: Jamie Stilley

Get ready…PACA's Summer Summit is shaping up to be a super-exciting few days in the Poconos. Scheduled for June 21–23, the summit combines leadership meetings, timely industry updates, great speakers, and plenty of high-energy networking in one of the most beautiful destinations in Pennsylvania. The agenda already promises a terrific mix of economic and political updates, a panel with Gov. Mark Schweiker and Dave La Torre discussing the Quecreek Mine and 9/11 events, receptions, SummitFest, and outdoor events including golf, fishing, and shooting. It's exactly the kind of event that brings PACA members together to learn, reconnect, and build momentum heading into the second half of the year.

What makes this year even more exciting is the setting: Skytop Lodge. Set on 5,500 acres in the Poconos, Skytop offers an experience that feels both energizing and first-class, making it a perfect home for Summer Summit. Guests can enjoy the resort's gracious accommodations across The Lodge, The Inn, and private cottages, along with multiple on-site dining options. Beyond that, Skytop is packed with amenities and activities, including its all-new Aquatic Center with a fitness center, indoor pool, splash pad, hydro spa, dry sauna, heated outdoor jetted pool, and poolside bar. The property also features an award-winning golf course, hiking, zip lining, treetop adventure course, boating, beach and lakeside water park/obstacle course access, pickleball, paddle tennis, tennis, fishing, and a full lineup of resort activities.

In other words, PACA Summer Summit is not just a meeting - it's a can't-miss experience. Between the strength of the program and the incredible amenities at Skytop Lodge, this year's Summit is going to be one of the highlights of the summer.
